Kargil Vijay Diwas

On July 26, 2022, City College Jayanagar commemorated Kargil Vijay Diwas with great reverence and patriotic fervor. The event, held to honor the brave soldiers who fought in the Kargil War, was spearheaded by the esteemed Principal, Veena Angadi.

The ceremony commenced with a solemn tribute to the martyrs, marked by the lighting of a ceremonial lamp and a minute of silence in their honor. Principal Veena Angadi delivered an inspiring speech, highlighting the significance of Kargil Vijay Diwas and the valor and sacrifice of the Indian Armed Forces. She emphasized the importance of remembering and respecting the soldiers who laid down their lives for the nation's security and sovereignty.

The program included a series of activities designed to instill a sense of patriotism and appreciation for the armed forces among the students. A documentary screening detailed the events of the Kargil War, providing insights into the challenges faced by the soldiers and their heroic efforts in securing victory. This was followed by a series of student-led presentations and speeches that paid tribute to the courage and dedication of the soldiers.

One of the highlights of the celebration was a guest lecture by a retired army officer who shared firsthand experiences and anecdotes from the Kargil War. The officer's talk was both moving and educational, providing students with a deeper understanding of the realities of war and the spirit of the Indian military.

Cultural performances added to the event's patriotic atmosphere. Students performed patriotic songs, dances, and skits that depicted scenes from the Kargil conflict and celebrated the bravery of the soldiers. These performances were met with enthusiastic applause and appreciation from the audience.

The event also featured an exhibition showcasing photographs, artifacts, and memorabilia related to the Kargil War, curated by the college's history department. This exhibition provided an educational experience for students, offering them a visual and tangible connection to the historical event.

In her closing remarks, Principal Veena Angadi expressed her pride in the students' participation and their display of patriotism. She reiterated the college's commitment to fostering a sense of national pride and respect for the armed forces among its students.

The Kargil Vijay Diwas celebration at City College Jayanagar was a poignant and inspiring event, successfully instilling a sense of national pride and honoring the bravery and sacrifice of the Indian soldiers.

Debate Competition on "After Amrita Mahotsav: How to Make Kannada the Preferred Language in Karnataka"

On 22-08-2022, City College in Jayanagar hosted a stimulating debate competition focused on the topic "After Amrita Mahotsav: How to Make Kannada the Preferred Language in Karnataka." The event saw active participation from students, showcasing their oratory skills and passion for preserving and promoting the Kannada language.

The competition was inaugurated by Principal Veena Angadi, who emphasized the importance of linguistic pride and the role of youth in promoting their mother tongue. Faculty members Deepashree, Namratha, Neetha, and Lavanya played key roles in organizing the event, ensuring a well-structured and engaging competition.

Participants were divided into two groups: those in favor of the motion and those against it. Each side presented compelling arguments, supported by historical references, cultural insights, and practical suggestions. The debate highlighted several key points on both sides:

Arguments in Favor of Making Kannada the Preferred Language:

1. Cultural Preservation: Emphasizing the rich literary heritage and cultural significance of Kannada, speakers argued that prioritizing Kannada would help preserve Karnataka's unique identity.
2. Educational Policies: Advocating for the inclusion of more Kannada-medium schools and colleges to ensure that students grow up fluent in their mother tongue.
3. Government Initiatives: Suggesting increased government efforts to promote Kannada through official communication, public signage, and media.
4. Economic Opportunities: Highlighting how promoting Kannada can boost local businesses and tourism, making it a vital part of the state's economy.

Arguments Against the Motion:

1. Global Competitiveness: Some argued that prioritizing Kannada could limit opportunities for students and professionals in the global market, where English and other languages dominate.
2. Multilingual Society: Emphasizing the importance of a multilingual society, speakers pointed out the benefits of knowing multiple languages for personal and professional growth.

3. Practical Challenges: Discussing the logistical and practical challenges of implementing policies that enforce the use of Kannada over other languages.

The debate was moderated by a panel of judges comprising faculty members and language experts who evaluated the participants on their clarity, relevance, and persuasive abilities. The lively exchange of ideas not only showcased the students' debating skills but also deepened their understanding of the complexities involved in language promotion.

In the end, awards were given to the best speakers from both sides, recognizing their exceptional arguments and presentation skills. Principal Veena Angadi, along with faculty members Deepashree, Namratha, Neetha, and Lavanya, congratulated all participants for their insightful contributions and encouraged them to continue engaging in discussions that impact their community and culture.

The debate competition on "After Amrita Mahotsav: How to Make Kannada the Preferred Language in Karnataka" was a significant event that fostered thoughtful dialogue among students, highlighting the importance of preserving linguistic heritage while navigating the challenges of a globalized

Guru Purnima Celebration at City College, Jayanagar - July 13, 2022

On July 13, 2022, City College in Jayanagar celebrated Guru Purnima with great reverence and enthusiasm. This auspicious occasion, dedicated to honoring teachers and gurus, was marked by heartfelt tributes and cultural performances, creating an atmosphere of respect and gratitude.

Principal Veena Angadi led the celebration, emphasizing the significance of Guru Purnima in recognizing the invaluable contributions of teachers in shaping the lives of students. The event was meticulously organized by the dedicated faculty members, including Deepashree, Namratha, Neetha, and Lavanya, ensuring a meaningful and memorable experience for all attendees.

The celebration began with the traditional lighting of the lamp by Principal Veena Angadi, symbolizing the dispelling of ignorance and the spreading of knowledge. This was followed by a heartfelt speech in which she expressed her appreciation for the teachers and their relentless efforts in nurturing and guiding students.

Students then took the stage to present various cultural performances, including songs, dances, and poetry recitations, all dedicated to their teachers. These performances highlighted the deep respect and affection students hold for their mentors, and they were met with enthusiastic applause from the audience.

A special segment of the event was dedicated to the felicitation of the faculty members. Principal Veena Angadi, along with the organizing committee, presented tokens of appreciation to the teachers, acknowledging their hard work and dedication. Each teacher received a personalized memento as a symbol of gratitude from the students.

The event also included a speech by a senior faculty member, who shared insights on the historical and cultural importance of Guru Purnima. The speech emphasized the guru-shishya (teacher-student) tradition and its relevance in today's educational landscape.

In addition to the cultural activities, students and teachers engaged in interactive sessions, sharing their experiences and reflections on the teacher-student relationship. These sessions fostered a sense of community and mutual respect, reinforcing the values celebrated on Guru Purnima.

The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by a student representative, who expressed gratitude to Principal Veena Angadi, the organizing faculty members, and all participants for making the event a grand success.

The Guru Purnima celebration at City College, Jayanagar, was a heartfelt tribute to the teachers, reflecting the deep respect and admiration students have for their mentors. ## REPORT ON BLOOD DONATION AWARENESS CAMP

Day & Date of the Event - Saturday 13.08.2022

Venue - City College Quadrangle

Number of Participants – 110

BRIEF OUTLINE ABOUT THE PROGRAM:

On 13.08.2022 Blood Donation Awareness Camp was organized by [ Inner wheel subsidiary of Rotary club Blood Centre] at [City College ,Quadrangle]. The camp aimed to educate the public about the importance of blood donation, address misconceptions, and encourage people to donate blood regularly. The event attracted a diverse group of participants, including students, local residents, and healthcare professionals.

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAM:

The primary objectives of the camp were:

1. To raise awareness about the critical need for blood donations as one donor can save 6 lives
2. To educate participants on the benefits of regular blood donation for both donors and recipients.
3. To dispel myths and fears associated with blood donation.
4. To create a database of potential blood donors for future emergencies.

Activities and Sessions

The camp was structured into several interactive sessions and activities:

1. Opening Session: The event began with an opening ceremony, where, Dr Mangesh Kamath, a renowned hematologist, spoke about the current state of blood banks and the importance of community involvement in blood donation drives.
2. Educational Talks: A series of talks were given by medical professionals, including doctors and nurses. Topics covered included the process of blood donation, who can donate, and the health benefits of donating blood. Emphasis was placed on how a single donation could save multiple lives.

3. Interactive Q&A Session: Participants were encouraged to ask questions. Common queries included concerns about the safety of the donation process, eligibility criteria, and the frequency with which one can donate.
4. Live Demonstration: A live demonstration was conducted, showing the entire blood donation process from registration to post-donation care. This helped demystify the process and alleviate fears among potential donors.
5. Information Booths: Several booths provided informational pamphlets, answered individual queries, and registered volunteers. There were also booths dedicated to specific topics, such as the importance of rare blood types and the role of platelets in medical treatments.

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAM:

Impact and Participation

The camp was successful in attracting over 110 participants. A notable number of attendees expressed interest in becoming regular donors, with many signing up for the first time. The event also saw the registration of 18 potential donors, significantly boosting the local blood bank's database.

Participants appreciated the interactive and informative nature of the camp. Feedback forms indicated that many attendees felt more confident and willing to donate blood in the future. The camp also received positive coverage in local media, which helped spread awareness beyond the immediate community.

Challenges and Future Recommendations

While the camp was successful, a few challenges were noted:

1. Limited Reach: Despite promotional efforts, some sections of the community were not aware of the event. Future camps could benefit from more extensive publicity.
2. Myths and Misconceptions: Despite the educational sessions, some misconceptions persisted, particularly regarding the impact of blood donation on personal health. Continued education and follow-up sessions could help address these issues.

Conclusion

The Blood Donation Awareness Camp was a valuable initiative that successfully educated and motivated individuals to participate in blood donation. By addressing fears and providing clear information, the camp contributed to a greater understanding of the importance of blood donation. Continued efforts in organizing such camps and spreading awareness can lead to a more robust and reliable blood supply, ultimately saving lives.

Day & Date of the Event – Tuesday 6.8.2021

Venue - Seminar Hall

Number of Participants – 150

BRIEF OUTLINE ABOUT THE PROGRAM:

On 6.8.2021, a Drug and AIDS Awareness Program was held at City College, organized by. The program aimed to educate the community about the dangers of drug abuse and the importance of HIV/AIDS awareness and prevention. It attracted a diverse audience, including students, parents, educators, healthcare professionals, and community members.

OBJECTIVE OF THE PROGRAM:

The primary objectives of the Drug and AIDS Awareness Program were:

1. To raise awareness about the health risks associated with drug abuse and HIV/AIDS.
2. To provide accurate information about the modes of transmission, prevention, and treatment of HIV/AIDS.
3. To dispel myths and reduce the stigma associated with drug addiction and HIV/AIDS.
4. To encourage responsible behavior and promote healthy lifestyle choices among participants.

Program Structure and Activities

The program included a series of educational and interactive sessions designed to inform and engage participants:

1. Opening Remarks: The event commenced with an opening address by Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan Senior Officer Mr Mayank, who emphasized the importance of addressing drug abuse and HIV/AIDS in the community. The speaker highlighted the need for awareness and education to prevent these issues and support affected individuals.

2. Educational Sessions:

- Understanding Drug Abuse: This session provided an overview of different types of drugs, their effects on the body and mind, and the dangers of addiction. Experts discussed the social, psychological, and health consequences of drug abuse, emphasizing the importance of early intervention and treatment.
- HIV/AIDS Awareness: Healthcare professionals explained the basics of HIV/AIDS, including how the virus is transmitted, the symptoms of infection, and available treatments. The session also covered preventive measures, such as safe sex practices and the use of pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP).

3. Interactive Workshops:

- Prevention and Healthy Choices: Workshops focused on teaching participants about making healthy lifestyle choices, understanding peer pressure, and developing skills to resist drug use. This included role-playing scenarios and discussions on how to seek help if needed.
- Testing and Counseling: The program offered free and confidential HIV testing and counseling services. Participants were encouraged to know their status and understand the importance of regular testing and early diagnosis.

4. Personal Stories and Testimonials:

Individuals who have experienced drug addiction or are living with HIV/AIDS shared their personal stories. These testimonials provided powerful insights into the challenges faced by affected individuals and highlighted the importance of support and compassion.

5. Panel Discussion and Q&A:

A panel of experts, including healthcare providers, counselors, and representatives from local support groups, discussed various topics related to drug abuse and HIV/AIDS. The session provided an opportunity for participants to ask questions and receive accurate information and guidance.

6. Resource Booths and Information Distribution:

Various booths were set up to distribute educational materials, including pamphlets on drug prevention, safe sex practices, and local resources for treatment and support. Participants also had access to information on counseling services, rehabilitation centers, and support groups.

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAM:

The Drug and AIDS Awareness Program was a success, with over 110 participants attending. The program effectively increased awareness and understanding of the issues surrounding drug abuse and HIV/AIDS. Participants appreciated the comprehensive information provided and the open, non-judgmental approach of the sessions.

Feedback indicated that many attendees felt more informed and empowered to make healthier choices and seek help if needed. The free testing and counseling services were particularly well-received, with many participants taking advantage of these resources.

Challenges and Future Recommendations

While the program was successful, several challenges were identified:

1. Stigma and Fear: Some participants were hesitant to engage fully in discussions about drug use and HIV/AIDS due to the stigma associated with these issues. Future programs could include more anonymous participation options and emphasize the importance of reducing stigma.
2. Continued Support and Education: Participants expressed a desire for ongoing education and support. Establishing regular workshops, support groups, and follow-up events could help sustain the program's impact and provide continuous support.

Conclusion: The Drug and AIDS Awareness Program was a valuable initiative, providing critical education and resources to the community. By addressing misconceptions, reducing stigma, and promoting healthy behaviors, the program played a key role in preventing drug abuse and HIV/AIDS. Ongoing efforts to educate and support the community are essential in combating these issues and fostering a healthier, more informed society.

Online Grievance Rederssal

We implemented online grievance redressal system as per NAAC norms in our campus. To resolve the grievances by students, employee and parents, we have created separate platform for grievance redressal i.e email.

The email address is: studentgrievance@citycollege.ac.in

Every 15 days the principal addresses the grievances received in the mail. The complete administration of grievance is handled by the college principal. Within few days the grievances were resolved, hence no grievance found in the campus.

All the issues were resolved with the help of this mail id.

Hello Sir/Madam,

This is Naveen of City College

I request the management to provide the snack facility in the campus, it is difficult to go out for the snacks every time. If college provides a snack machine, it will be very useful.

Thanks and regards,
Naveen

Title: Internal Complaints Committee (ICC)

No. 27/2, 33rd Cross, 2nd Main Rd, 7th Block, Jayanagar, Bengaluru, Karnataka 560082

Internal Complaints Committee (ICC)

In pursuance to the UGC/ Supreme Court guidelines, the City College, Jayanagar has constituted an Internal Complaints Committee for gender sensitization and handling complaints against sexual harassment. The committee addresses complaints such as discriminatory behaviour and sexual harassment lodged by any member of the college which he or she observes or becomes aware of. The committee also advises the authorities to take necessary remedial actions, including punishment against the offender. The committee consists of representatives from the faculty members, non-teaching staff, students. Despite the preventive efforts made by the committee, if any incidents of sexual harassment take place, the registration of complaints shall follow the following procedures.

1. Complaints can be lodged directly with any member of the committee. The person to whom the complaint is made should bring it to the notice of the committee within 2 working days of receiving it.
2. The complaint may be oral or in writing. If the complaint is oral, it shall be made in writing by the committee or the member who has received the complaint with the signature of the complainant.
3. A complaint should be lodged within six weeks of the incident. In extraordinary circumstances, this could be extended to six months.
4. The committee shall study the complaint and may hear both the complainant and the accused and other involved parties to determine if an enquiry should be instituted. If so, then an enquiry committee will be formed from the committee consisting of not less than 5 people or not more than 7 people. 70% of this committee will be women.
5. The process shall be complainant friendly and quick in its decision regarding whether the matter needs to be enquired into or can be taken care of by counseling or mediation.
6. The complainant may withdraw his/her complaint in writing at any time during the enquiry procedure. In such cases, the procedure should be terminated. If the committee feels or has enough reason to believe that the withdrawal is the consequence or effect of cohesion/ intimidation/ threat exerted by the accused or any person on his/her behalf, the enquiry proceedings shall continue.

7. The enquiry committee shall complete the enquiry in the shortest possible time, not exceeding 1 month from the date of complaint.
8. The enquiry committee shall provide a reasonable opportunity for the complainant and the accused to present/ defend their case.
9. The enquiry committee shall then submit a detailed report to the main committee in which it shall communicate its findings based on its investigation.
10. The main committee, along with the enquiry committee, will then forward its findings and recommendations to the management for further action.

Objectives:

The ICC is formed mainly to execute the prevention of sexual harassment policy outlined by the UGC/Supreme Court. Therefore, the committee upholds the following objectives: □

1. To prevent and prohibit incidents of sexual harassment of female employees and students in the college. □
2. To sensitize the female employees and students about the fundamental rights to have a safe and healthy environment in the college.
3. To create a secure physical and social environment for women.
4. To organize a women's sanitation awareness program.
5. To recommend appropriate punitive action against the the guilty.

MBA Farewell Celebration at City College, Jayanagar - September 22, 2022

On September 22, 2022, City College, Jayanagar bid a heartfelt farewell to its MBA graduates with a grand celebration. The event, graced by the presence of Principal Veena Angadi, was a touching tribute to the hard work and achievements of the departing students.

The farewell began with an inspiring speech from Principal Veena Angadi, who commended the graduates for their dedication and perseverance throughout their MBA journey. She encouraged them to carry forward the knowledge and values they had gained at City College into their future endeavors.

The faculty members, including Deepashree, Namratha, Neetha, and Lavanya, played significant roles in organizing the event, ensuring it was both memorable and enjoyable. Their efforts were evident in the meticulous planning and execution of the celebration, which was filled with heartfelt moments and joyous activities.

The event featured a series of performances by the students, including dances, musical acts, and skits, that reflected the camaraderie and talents of the MBA batch. These performances brought laughter, applause, and a few tears as memories of their time together were relived.

Decorations in the venue created a festive yet nostalgic atmosphere, with banners, balloons, and photo collages of memorable moments from the students' journey at the college. A special video montage was shown, capturing highlights from the past two years, which added an emotional touch to the celebration.

In addition to the performances, awards were presented to students for various achievements, both academic and extracurricular. These awards recognized the hard work and contributions of the students, further adding to the celebratory spirit of the evening.

The farewell also included a sumptuous dinner, where students, faculty, and staff mingled, sharing stories and expressing their hopes for the future. The evening ended with a vote of thanks from the faculty, wishing the graduates success in their future careers.

The MBA farewell celebration at City College, Jayanagar, was a beautifully orchestrated event that honored the journey and accomplishments of the graduating students. The dedication of Principal Veena Angadi and the faculty members Deepashree, Namratha, Neetha, and Lavanya ensured that the farewell was a fitting send-off, filled with joy, gratitude, and best wishes for the future.

Intra-College Carrom Competition

On August 25, 2022, City College in Jayanagar hosted a lively Intra-College Carrom Competition, which saw the participation of 20 enthusiastic students from various departments. The event was a showcase of talent, strategic thinking, and sportsmanship, providing a platform for students to engage in friendly competition.

The competition was organized under the leadership of Principal Veena Angadi, whose encouragement and support were crucial in making the event a success. Faculty members Deepashree, Namratha, Neetha, and Lavanya played significant roles in the organization and smooth execution of the tournament.

The college's common area was transformed into a vibrant competition venue, with carrom boards set up and participants eager to showcase their skills. The matches were conducted in a knockout format, heightening the excitement and competitive spirit among the players. Each match demonstrated the players' precision and tactical prowess, with students aiming to their opponents with calculated shots.

Spectators, including fellow students and faculty, gathered to watch the matches, cheering and supporting the participants. The atmosphere was charged with enthusiasm, fostering a sense of community and shared enjoyment.

As the tournament progressed, the intensity of the matches increased, with players displaying remarkable concentration and determination. The final rounds were particularly gripping, as the best players faced off in closely contested matches that kept the audience on the edge of their seats.

The competition concluded with a prize distribution ceremony, where the top performers were awarded trophies and certificates in recognition of their exceptional skills and achievements. Principal Veena Angadi, along with faculty members Deepashree, Namratha, Neetha, and Lavanya, congratulated all participants and encouraged them to continue pursuing their passion for the game.

The Carrom Intra-College Competition at City College, Jayanagar, was a resounding success, providing an enjoyable and competitive environment for students to demonstrate their talents. The event not only highlighted the carrom skills of the participants but also reinforced the college's commitment to promoting extracurricular activities and fostering a well-rounded educational experience.
